“I Hope You Dance”

Lee Ann Womack

I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat
But always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty handed
I hope you still feel small when you
Stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes
I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance

Tell me who wants to look back on their youth and wonder
Where those years have gone...

In Memory of Mark J. Eugenio

May 28, 1992- August 21, 2006

God's Lent Child

*I'll lend you for a little while a child of mine, God said,
For you to love while he lives, and to mourn for when he's dead
It may be six or seven years or forty-two or three
But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you, and should his stay be brief,
You'll always have his memories as a solace in your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth return,
But there are lessons down below, I want this child to learn.
I've looked this whole world over in my search for teachers true,
And from the folk that crowds life's lane, I have chosen you.
Now will you give him all your love and not think the labour vain
Nor hate me when I come to take this lent child back again?
I fancy that I heard them say, "Dear God, Thy will be done,
For all the joys this child will bring the risk of grief we'll run.
We will shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may,
And for all the happiness we've ever known, we'll ever grateful stay,
But should the angels call him much sooner than we'd planned,
We will brave the bitter grief that comes, and try to understand."*

Principal's Message

To The Class Of 2010,

Having your name and picture in this year's yearbook signifies that you have successfully completed the first stage of your academic career. I am confident that the knowledge and experiences you have acquired at Peabody Veterans Memorial High School will contribute to your future success. Your teachers have worked diligently to prepare you for your future. They have encouraged you to be respectful and tolerant and to set high standards, achieve academic success, and continue to learn and contribute to society. As your destiny unfolds, you will be tested and challenged. When you reflect upon your accomplishments, your hard work and your contribution to the success of PVMHS, I hope you will always be proud to be a Tanner.

Sincerely,

Edward A. Sapienza
